SETTLEMENT OVERVIEW

“Ordinary” Out-of-Pocket Losses and Ordinary Attested Time: If you have incurred unreimbursed costs, losses, or expenditures responding to the notice of the Data Breach or in response to the Data Breach, you can make a claim for reimbursement for ordinary out-of-pocket losses and ordinary attested time up to $2,500.00 in the aggregate, subject to the following:

Ordinary Out-of-Pocket Losses: Examples of ordinary out-of-pocket losses include: (i) costs associated with accessing or freezing/unfreezing credit reports with any credit-reporting agency; (ii) other miscellaneous expenses incurred related to any Ordinary Out-of-Pocket Loss such as notary, fax, postage, copying, mileage, and long-distance telephone charges; (iii) credit monitoring or other mitigative costs. To submit a valid claim, you must provide third-party documentation (not “self-prepared”) to support the unreimbursed cost, loss, or expenditure as well as a brief description of the documentation if the nature of the cost, loss, or expenditure is not apparent from the documentation alone.

Ordinary Attested Time: If you spent time responding to receiving the notice of Data Breach, you may also submit a claim for reimbursement for up to 7 hours of time at a rate of $30.00/hour. To submit a valid claim, you must provide an attestation and brief description of the actions taken in response to receiving notice of the Data Breach and the time associated with each action.

“Extraordinary” Losses and Extraordinary Attested Time: If you believe you suffered identity theft, fraud, or other extraordinary losses, you may submit a claim for extraordinary losses and extraordinary attested time up to $35,000.00 in the aggregate. The total amount of compensation you may claim for ordinary out-of-pocket losses, ordinary attested time, extraordinary losses, and extraordinary attested time cannot exceed $35,000.00, subject to the following:

Extraordinary Losses: Extraordinary losses are unreimbursed costs, losses, or expenditures that are fairly traceable to the Data Breach and that are not reimbursable as ordinary out-of-pocket losses. Examples of extraordinary losses include unreimbursed costs, losses, or expenditures incurred as a result of identity theft or identity fraud, falsified tax returns, real estate title fraud, banking fraud, or other possible misuse of your personal information. To submit a valid claim, you must provide third-party documentation (not “self-prepared”) to support the unreimbursed cost, loss, or expenditure as well as a brief description of the documentation if the nature of the cost, loss, or expenditure is not apparent from the documentation alone. Extraordinary Losses will be deemed “fairly traceable” if (1) the unreimbursed cost, loss, or expenditure was incurred in responding to the notice of the Data Breach or in response to the Data Breach, and (2) the personal information used to commit identity theft, fraud, or other misuse consisted of the same type of personal information that was provided to Defendant prior to the Data Breach or that can be reasonably easily obtained on the basis of information that was provided to Defendant prior to the Data Breach.

Extraordinary Attested Time: If you spent time remediating identity theft, fraud, or other misuse of your information related to the Data Breach, you may also submit a claim for reimbursement for up to 10 hours of time at a rate of $30.00/hour. To submit a valid claim, you must provide an attestation and brief description of the actions taken to remedy identity theft, fraud, or other misuse of your information related to the Data Breach and the time associated with each action.

Credit Monitoring: You can submit a claim for three years of three-bureau credit monitoring services, including dark web scanning, identity theft insurance, real-time credit monitoring with Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion, and access to fraud resolution agents.

The total amount of compensation that can be claimed for Ordinary Out-of-Pocket Losses, Ordinary Attested Time, Extraordinary Losses, and Extraordinary Attested Time cannot exceed $35,000.00 per individual, and the total amount of Attested Time (Ordinary and Extraordinary) cannot exceed 10 hours per person.
